

Congratulations to President Elect Barack Obama

Contributed by Jeffrey Cleary

With an unprecedented campaign, vision, and ability to speak, my deepest congratulations to Barack Obama. I look forward with great anticipation and hope to the future.

May America NEVER forgets the lies and deceit fed to the American people by the Bush administration. It's been a hell of an 8 years, and I'm so thankful a man with vision for the people has actually been elected.

May America NEVER forget!
