

Help Me Find my Jacket

Contributed by Jeffrey Cleary

My jacket was mistakenly picked up from the Blue Moon in Rehoboth Beach, Delaware, this past Saturday, 12/26/2009. It has more sentimental meaning to me than any value, and I'd really like to get it back. Whomever mistakenly took it can easily leave it at the Blue Moon, EVERYONE there knows me, and my jacket.

Please help me find my jacket, and re-post this photo far and wide, and or contact me via my website:
